Authorised Marriage Celebrant

ABOUT

I became a celebrant because I truly believe weddings should be a reflection of the couple being celebrated. Each ceremony I officiate is written from scratch and created in collaboration with the couple, offering a completely personalised ceremony. This means you choose what you include, the vibe you set and the way you and your guests remember your ceremony.

CONTACT

If I sound like the right person to help you celebrate your wedding day, please get in touch.
